MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I. INTRODUCTION

The primary asset in the bankruptcy case filed by BRANDON MICHAEL D'HAENENS (the “Debtor”) is a fifty percent (50%) interest in the real property located at 609 Los Feliz Street, Las Vegas, Nevada 89110 [APN 140-35-110-067] (the “Property”). The Property is equally owned by the Debtor and Severn P. Bizzaro (“Bizzaro”), the Debtor’s brother. Prior to the Debtor’s bankruptcy filing, Half Dental Franchise, LLC, HDM, LLC, Chayse Myers, and Matt Baker (collectively, the “Half Dental Parties”) commenced an arbitration proceeding against the Debtor and Jason McKew (“McKew”) with the American Arbitration Association Commercial Arbitration Tribunal (Case No. 01-14-0002-1009) (the “Arbitration Proceeding”). The Arbitration Proceeding eventually resulted in the entry of a Modified Arbitrator’s Decision and Award (the “Arbitration Award”) in favor of the Half Dental Parties and against the Debtor and McKew in the amount of $5,641,223 (the “Arbitration Award”), which was later confirmed by the Eighth Judicial District Court pursuant to Nevada Revised Statute (“N.R.S.”) § 38.239.

The Half Dental Parties then initiated the action captioned Half Dental Franchise, LLC v. Bizzaro (Case No. A-15-722175-C) (the “Fraudulent Transfer Action”) in the Eighth Judicial District Court seeking to recover the Property that had been transferred by the Debtor to various third parties after the entry of the Arbitration Award. Specifically, on June 23, 2015, the Debtor and Bizzaro transferred title to the Property to George Edward Doty (“Doty”), an individual. On <sup>2</sup> The Trustee also requests that the Court take judicial notice of all pleadings filed in the above-referenced bankruptcy case, including adversary proceedings, pursuant to Federal Rule of Evidence 201, incorporated by reference by FRBP 9017.

1 or about June 28, 2015, Doty transferred title to the Property to Steven P. Simmons (“Simmons”),
 2 an individual.<sup>3</sup> After the Debtor’s bankruptcy filing, the court in the Fraudulent Transfer Action 3 entered an Order Granting Plaintiffs’ Motion for Summary Judgment and for Fees and Costs and 4 Denying Defendants’ Counter-Motion for Summary Judgment Re: Attorney’s Fees (the “MSJ
 5 Order”), which rendered judgment in favor of the Half Dental Parties on all claims for relief
 6 asserted in the Fraudulent Transfer Action, including attorneys’ fees and costs. The MSJ Order
 7 further stated that the defendants in the Fraudulent Transfer abandoned the right to claim a 8 homestead exemption.

9 After the commencement of the Debtor’s bankruptcy case, the Trustee became the real 10 party-in-interest concerning the Fraudulent Transfer Action and had authority to settle the same 11 for the benefit of all of the Debtor’s creditors. The Trustee has reviewed the claims asserted in 12 the Fraudulent Transfer Action, the basis for an objection to the Debtor’s homestead exemption, 13 and the value of the Property and has determined that a settlement is in the best interests of the 14 Debtor’s creditors. For these reasons, the Trustee has entered into a settlement agreement that 15 provides that the Debtor will pay the Trustee the sum of $62,500 in exchange for a release of any 16 claims that the Trustee has authority to settle, including those claims asserted in the Fraudulent 17 Transfer Action and any objection that could be raised to the Debtor’s homestead exemption.

18                   II. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

19 The Court has jurisdiction over the bankruptcy case and the subject matter of this Motion
 20 pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334. The Motion is a core proceeding under 28 U.S.C. § 21 157(b)(2). Pursuant to Local Rule 9014.2, if the Court determines that absent consent of the 22 parties the Court cannot enter final orders or judgment regarding the Motion consistent with 23 Article III of the United States Constitution, the Trustee consents to entry of final orders and 24 judgment by this Court. Venue before this Court is appropriate under 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and

 26 <sup>3</sup> On or about December 16, 2015, a Reconveyance Deed was recorded with the Clark County
 27 Recorder concerning the Property (the “Reconveyance Deed”). The Reconveyance Deed
 28 contained a number of recitals concerning the various transfers of title following the Debtor’s initial purchase of the Property in 2006 and resulted in the transfer of title to the Property back to the Debtor and Bizzaro.

19           IV. LEGAL ARGUMENT

20           The Bankruptcy Court may approve a compromise or settlement between a debtor and 21 another party pursuant to Fed. R. Bankr. P. 9019(a), which provides the following:

22           Compromise. On motion by the trustee and after notice and a 23 hearing, the court may approve a compromise or settlement. Notice 24 shall be given to creditors, the United States trustee, the debtor, and indenture trustees as provided in Rule 2002 and to any other entity as the court may direct.

25 FED. R. BANKR. P. 9019(a).

 27
 28 herein, the Settlement Agreement shall control. Capitalized terms used but not defined herein shall have the meaning set forth in the Settlement Agreement.

1 Compromise and settlement agreements have long been an inherent component of the 2 bankruptcy process. The Ninth Circuit recognized that “[t]he bankruptcy court has great latitude
3 in approving compromise agreements.” See Woodson v. Fireman’s Fund Ins. Co. (In re
4 Woodson), 839 F.2d 610, 620 (9th Cir. 1988). Accordingly, in approving a settlement, the Court
5 need not conduct an exhaustive investigation of the claims sought to be compromised. See United 6 States v. Alaska National Bank (In re Walsh Constr., Inc.), 669 F.2d 1325, 1328 (9th Cir. 1982).
7 Rather, it is sufficient that the Court find that the settlement was negotiated in good faith and is 8 reasonable, fair, and equitable. See Martin v. Kane (In re A & C Properties), 784 F.2d 1377, 1381
9 (9th Cir. 1986), cert. denied, 479 U.S. 854 (1986). The proponent of the settlement must also 10 persuade the court that the settlement is in the best interests of the estate. See Goodwin v. Mickey 11 Thompson Entertainment Group. (In re Mickey Thompson Entertainment Group, Inc.), 292 B.R.
12 415, 420–21 (B.A.P. 9th Cir. 2003). It is within the sound discretion of the bankruptcy court
13 whether to accept or reject a compromise. See In re Carson, 82 B.R. 847 (Bankr. S.D. Ohio 14 1987).

15 The Ninth Circuit has identified the following factors for consideration in determining 16 whether a settlement is reasonable, fair, and equitable:

17 (a) the probability of success in the litigation; (b) the difficulties, if 18 any, to be encountered in the matter of collection; (c) the 19 complexity of the litigation involved, and the expense, inconvenience and delay necessarily attending it; (d) the paramount interest of the creditors and a proper deference to their reasonable views in the premises.

21 In re A & C Properties, 784 F.2d at 1381. The moving party is not required to satisfy each of 22 these factors as long as the factors as a whole favor approving the settlement. See In re Pacific
23 Gas & Electric Co., 304 B.R. 395, 416 (Bankr. N.D. Cal. 2004). In considering the factors, “a 24 precise determination of the likely outcome is not required, since an exact judicial determination
25 of the values at issue would defeat the purpose of compromising the claim.” In re Telesphere
26 Comm’s, Inc., 179 B.R. 544, 553 (Bankr. N.D. Ill. 1994) (internal quotations omitted). Thus, 27 rather than determining various issues of fact and law, the Court should “canvass the issues and

1 see whether the settlement fall[s] below the lowest point in the range of reasonableness.” In re
2 Lion Capital Group, 49 B.R. 163, 175 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1985) (internal quotations omitted).

3 B. The Settlement Agreement Is Fair and Equitable

4       1. The Probability of Success in the Litigation

5 Upon the filing of a bankruptcy case, the bankruptcy trustee becomes the real party-in-6 interest in any fraudulent transfer actions that were commenced pre-petition. See Mortgage
7 America, Corp., 714 F.2d 1266 (5th Cir. 1983) (holding that a fraudulent transfer action under 8 Texas law is property of a debtor’s bankruptcy estate that can only be prosecuted by the Chapter 7
9 Trustee); see also In re Zwirn, 362 B.R. 536 (Bankr. S.D. FL. 2007) (holding that a Chapter 7
10 Trustee could settle a fraudulent transfer action commenced by a creditor pre-petition as the real 11 party-in-interest over the objection of the creditor that had originally commenced the fraudulent 12 transfer action);

13 The Trustee believes that she will be successful if she decided to pursue the Fraudulent
14 Transfer Action or file an objection to the Debtor’s homestead exemption. That said, the Trustee 15 recognizes that the outcome of any litigation is never certain, and there is a possibility that the 16 MSJ Order may be reversed, thereby preventing the Trustee from utilizing it to file an objection to 17 the Debtor’s homestead exemption. Given this uncertainty, this factor weighs in favor of 18 approval of the Settlement Agreement.

19       2. The Difficulties in Matter of Collection

20 After her appointment, the Trustee arranged for an experienced real estate agent to review 21 the Property to determine its fair market valuation. The realtor has informed the Trustee that the 22 Property is currently under construction and could not be marketed to a retail buyer through the 23 multiple listing service. Due to the significant repairs that the Property requires, any buyer for the 24 Property would have to offer all cash as the Property would not likely pass an inspection or 25 qualify for a conventional mortgage. As result, even if the Trustee is successful in pursuing the 26 Fraudulent Transfer Action and a related objection to the Debtor’s exemption, it is possible that 27 she would not be able to liquidate the Property for the benefit of the Debtor’s creditors.

28 . . .

1           3. The Complexity of the Litigation Involved and the Expense, Inconvenience and 2           Delay

3           The dispute that is the basis of the Fraudulent Transfer Action does not involve nuanced
4           legal theories, but is factually intensive. Moreover, the MSJ Order did not include the Debtor due 5           to his bankruptcy filing and, therefore, would require the resolution of the dispute before the 6           Nevada Supreme Court before the Trustee could seek to incorporate the Debtor. In addition, there
7           is a possibility that the Trustee would have to seek to partition the Property pursuant to Section
8           363(h) if the MSJ Order is affirmed on appeal because the Property is co-owned by the Debtor
9           and Bizzaro. Accordingly, this factor weighs in favor of the approval of the Settlement 10          Agreement pursuant to FRBP 9019 because litigation of the Fraudulent Transfer Action and any 11          related objection to the Debtor's homestead exemption before this Court would involve
12          significant administrative expenses that would only reduce any distribution to the Debtor's 13          creditors.

14           4. The Paramount Interest of the Creditors

15           The Settlement Agreement is in the best interests of creditors because it will result in the 16          recovery of $62,500 that will be available to pay proofs of claim that have been filed in the 17          Debtor's bankruptcy case. Since there are no assets in the Debtor's bankruptcy case currently 18          available to pay creditors, approval of the Settlement Agreement will result in the recovery of 19          funds that will allow for a dividend to be paid to creditors.

V. CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, the Trustee respectfully requests that the Court enter an order
(i) approving the Settlement Agreement attached as Exhibit “1” to the Krohn Declaration pursuant to FRBP 9019 and (ii) for such other and further relief as is just and proper.
